

Libraries

No matter which UPJV campus you join, you will always find a library nearby!

A network of 12 libraries

On our 6 campuses, a network of 12 libraries welcomes you to consult and borrow documents (books and journals, newspapers and news magazines). Online resources (e-journals, e-books, subscriptions to scientific journals) are also available remotely.

At the service of students, research teachers and staff, the libraries offer, if necessary, the specific assistance of a librarian for your documentary research, and train you in the use of digital documentary research tools.

As emblematic places for the transmission of knowledge, the UPJV libraries organise thematic exhibitions as well as free activities and workshops throughout the year, according to annual highlights or current events. New discoveries guaranteed!

Please note the existence of a permanent exhibition room dedicated to Jules Verne. The University Library (BU) at the Citadelle Campus in Amiens preserves and promotes the collection of the "Jules Verne International Centre". Each year, it allows visitors to discover a new subject around the author: Jules Verne and the sea, Jules Verne and space...
